UNITED STATES HISTORY AND GOVERNMENT

CONCEPTS | NEED TO STUDY:

TERMS I NEED TO STUDY:

1. If you see: House of Burgesses, Mayflower Compact ...

Look for: "early forms of democracy", "representative government" or early "republics"

2. If you see: Chief Justice John Marshall ...

Look for: Either he expanded or strengthened the power of the federal government, or Judicial Review. Marbury v. Madison = Judicial Review.

3. If you see: Census ...

Look for: Apportionment (distribution) of votes in House, Representation of States, or Electoral Voting power

4. If you see: Nativism = anti-foreign sentiment. The creation of quota systems regarding immigration is important to know. These acts favored western Europeans who spoke English, NOT Eastern Europeans. A question on the Chinese Exclusion Act or the Sacco-Vanzetti or Korematsu case could also have nativism as an answer.

5. Federalism = Division of Powers between the Federal Government and the States. Both the Articles of Confederation and Constitution had the principle of federalism.

6. If you see: John Peter Zenger ...

Look for: Freedom of the Press

7. If you see: George Washington ...

Look for: is likely relates to idea of "neutrality/isolationism/noninvolvement" or Presidential cabinet

8. If you see: John Locke ...

Look for: is likely related to natural rights - life, liberty, property (and vice versa), or the Declaration/Bill of Rights

9. Why did we have a weak Articles of Confederation?

Look for: fear of a strong government, or power to the states was preferred.

10. If you see: Unwritten Constitution

Look for: Cabinet, political parties, or two-term tradition

11. If you see: Erie Canal

Look for: Connected Great Lakes region to Atlantic (middle of country to east coast cities/ocean)

12. If you see: Federalist

Look for: Stronger central government / elastic (loose) interpretation of Constitution, led by Hamilton/Madison

13. If you see: Anti-Federalist

Look for: Wanted a Bill of Rights (protect "civil liberties", led by Jefferson, against National Bank

- 14. If you see: Great Compromise or 3/5 Compromise (how many slaves count towards representation)
- Look for: Distribution of representation in Congress, Two Chamber/House Congress, Big States v. Small States 15. If you see: War of 1812

Look for: US guarantees/solidifies its independence

16. If you see: Andrew Jackson / Jacksonian Democracy

Think: Spoils system, pet banks, Native American Removal Act, removal of property requirement to vote

17. Manifest Destiny led to developing and acquiring land west of the Mississippi River & Native American removal

18. If you see: Monroe Doctrine

Look for: Anything similar to keeping Europe out of the western half of the world (Latin America)

19. What caused the Civil War: Sectionalism - Different feelings about issues, especially slavery Great Compromise = North must return runaway slaves Kansas Nebraska Act = States choose (pop. sovereignty)

20. If you see: Abraham Lincoln

Look for: Main goal was to restore the Union

21. If you see: Andrew Johnson or Bill Clinton

Look for: Acquitted of his impeachment

22. If you see: Spanish American War Look for: US becomes involved in world affairs

23. If you see: Dred Scott v. Sanford

Look for: Slavery could exist in 'free' states

- 24. Reconstruction was a failure. Poll Taxes (Cost $ to vote) the KKK, and Literacy Tests prevented freed slaves from voting/success
- 25. If you see: Plessy v. Ferguson

Look for: Separate but equal / Segregation

26. If you see: Andrew Johnson or Bill Clinton

Look for: Acquitted of his impeachment

27. If you see: Big Stick Policy

Look for: US intervened on behalf of Latin American countries

28. If you see: Theodore Roosevelt

Look for: "Square Deal" = Trustbuster, broke up corporations/businesses, consumer protection, Big Stick Policy

- 29. The Progressive Era led to reform and a stronger, better protected, middle/working class
- 30. If you see: Initiative, Referendum, or Recall Look for: EXPANDING democracy during the Progressive Era
- 31. If you see: Upton Sinclair (The Jungle), Jacob Riis (How the Other Half Lives) Look for: Muckraker, progressive, social change,
- 32. What caused the US to get into WWI?: "The boat and the note" = Lusitania (sunken by German U-boat) & Zimmermann Telegram (Germany promised to help Mexico regain land lost to US)
- 33. If you see: Nativism Fear/Dislike of immigrants and or 'radical ideas' Look for: Chinese Exclusion, Quota Act, Gentlemen's Agreement, Sacco & Vanzetti, Palmer Raids
- 34. If you see: Schenck v. United States "...shouting fire in a theatre..." Look for: Civil liberties are limited in times of war
  - Look for: Civil liberties are limited in times of
- 35. If you see: League of Nations

Look for: US does not join - Senate rejects Treaty of Versailles because of it

- 36. If you see: Prohibition / 18th Amendment Prohibits manufacturing and sale of alcohol Look for: Rise of organized crime / Hard to enforce moral policies people don't agree with
- If you see: Great Depression Fear/Dislike of immigrants and or 'radical ideas' Look for: Marginal spending, Buying on Credit, Speculation, Dust Bowl
- 38. If you see: Lend Lease, Cash and Carry, Naval Bases for Destroyers Look for: Supreme Court Packing scheme, President/Government too powerful
- 39. If you see: Korematsu v. United States Upheld Japanese internment camps Look for: Internment, threat to national security, Executive Order 9066
- 40. If you see: Berlin Airlift, Truman Doctrine, Marshall Plan, Peace Corps Look for: Economic aid to create alliances and prevent the spread of communism
- 41. If you see: Lyndon B. Johnson or Great Society

Look for: Government will help people out of poverty = Similar to the New Deal

- 42. If you see: Korean "War" or Vietnam "War' (both were unsuccessful)
  - Look for: Not a real war / Conflict of Congress' lack of approval for war
- 43. If you see: Eisenhower Interstate System Look for: Suburbanization - Cars and highways helped form suburbs
- 44. If you see: Sputnik / Space Race (1957)
- Look for: US feels they have to match USSR space/military technology boosts US effort 45. If you see: Bay of Pigs
  - Look for: Failure to overthrow communist dictator Fidel Castro
- 46. If you see: Cuban Missile Crisis USSR stores nukes on Cuba Look for: Fear of nuclear war leads to naval blockade of island

<ul> <li>49. If you see: Brown v. Board of Education Look for: Civertumed Plessy v. Farguson</li> <li>49. If you see: Tinker v. Deskloines or New Jarsey v. TLO Look for: Limited students rights and protections in school settings</li> <li>50. If you see: Chief Justice Earl Warren Look for: Resignation before decision in impeachment</li> <li>51. If you see: Richard Nixon Look for: Resignation before decision in impeachment</li> <li>52. If you see: Camp David Accords. Guif War, OPEC Look for: US negotiations and action in the Middle East</li> <li>53. If you see: Camp David Accords. Guif War, OPEC Look for: IUS negotiations and action in the Middle East</li> <li>55. If you see: George H.W. Bush Look for: Raised taxes, Guif War</li> <li>56. If you see: Gorege H.W. Bush Look for: Raised taxes, Guif War</li> <li>57. If you see: Gorege H.W. Bush Look for: Raised taxes, Guif War</li> <li>57. If you see: Gorege H.W. Bush Look for: Raised taxes, Guif War</li> <li>57. If you see: Gorege H.W. Bush Look for: Raised taxes, Guif War</li> <li>57. If you see: Gore K. Bush, John Quincy Adams, Samuel Tiiden, Grover Cleveland Look for: Raised taxes, Guif War</li> <li>57. If you see: Gore K. Bush, John Quincy Adams, Samuel Tiiden, Grover Cleveland Look for: Elections where popular vole did not determine the winner</li> <li>TIPS:</li> <li>1) Remember, the Regents is mostly chronological so remember some main ideas in order. -Found do to make money for Birtain -Fear of strong central government results in a weak Articles of Confederation -Constitution strengthens central government</li> <li>-Progressive Era creates reform for consumers/workers -Spanish American War = First steps towards world affairs in Latin America -Corporations and weathy dominate economy -Progressive Era creates reform for consumers/workers</li> <li>-WWI Reads to US leader in world affair and end of isolationism -Cold War era = Containment to for communism by Joing economic aid -Modern era = Distrust of government participation to regulate economy -WWI Reads to US</li></ul>	. If you see: Miranda v. Arizona, Gideon v. Wainwright, Mapp v. Ohio, or Escobedo v. Illinois
<ul> <li>Look for: Covertumed Plessy v. Ferguson</li> <li>49. If you see: Tinker v. DesMoines or New Jersey v. TLO Look for: Limited students rights and protections in school settings</li> <li>50. If you see: Chief Justice Earl Warren Look for: Increased Civil Rights, Activist justice/court, Upheld rights of the accused</li> <li>51. If you see: Richard Nixon Look for: Resignation before decision in impeachment</li> <li>22. If you see: Watergate Look for: Covered trust in executive branch/government/President</li> <li>23. If you see: Gerald Ford Look for: Covered trust in executive branch/government/President</li> <li>24. If you see: Gamp David Accords. Gulf War, OPEC Look for: Lowered trust in executive branch/government/President</li> <li>25. If you see: Camp David Accords. Gulf War, OPEC Look for: Lowered taxes for wealthy</li> <li>26. If you see: George H.W. Bush Look for: Raised taxes, Gulf War</li> <li>27. If you see: Gorge H.W. Bush Look for: Raised taxes, Gulf War</li> <li>27. If you see: Gorge H.W. Bush Look for: Raised taxes, Gulf War</li> <li>27. If you see: Gorge H.W. Bush Look for: Elections where popular vote did not determine the winner</li> </ul> TTPS: T1PS: 11 Remember, the Regents is mostly chronological so remember some main ideas in orderFounded to make money for Britain -Foar of strong central government results in a weak Articles of Confederation -Constitution strengthens central government -US remains neutral/isolated -Civil War over sectionalism/slavery -Progressive Era creates reform for consumers/workers -Spanish American War = First steps towards world affairs in Latin America -Corporations and wealthy dominate economy -Progressive Era creates reform for consumers/workers -WWI & Roaring 20's = Isolation to memote participation to regulate economy -WWI leads to US leader in world affair and end of isolationism -Civil liberties are imited in times of war -Civil liberties (speech) are not guaranteed -Barmers never win -Civil liberties (speech) are not guaranteed -Barme	Look for: Upheld/strengthened rights of the accused
<ul> <li>49. If you see: Tinker v. DesMoines or New Jersey v. TLO Look for: Limited students rights and protections in school settings</li> <li>50. If you see: Chief Justice Earl Warren Look for: Resignation before decision in impeachment</li> <li>51. If you see: Richard Nixon Look for: Resignation before decision in impeachment</li> <li>52. If you see: Watergate Look for: Lowered trust in executive branch/government/President</li> <li>53. If you see: Gerald Ford Look for: US negotiations and action in the Middle East</li> <li>55. If you see: Supply Side Economics, Trickle Down Economics, Reaganomics Look for: US negotiations and action in the Middle East</li> <li>55. If you see: Gore v. Bush Look for: Raised taxes for weathy</li> <li>56. If you see: Gore v. Bush, John Quincy Adams, Samuel Tilden, Grover Cleveland Look for: Raised taxes, Guif War</li> <li>77. If you see: Gore v. Bush, John Quincy Adams, Samuel Tilden, Grover Cleveland Look for: Elections where popular vote did not determine the winner</li> <li>71. If you see: Gore v. Bush, John Quincy Adams, Samuel Tilden, Grover Cleveland Look for: Elections where popular vote did not determine the winner</li> <li>71. If you see: Gore v. Bush, John Quincy Adams, Samuel Tilden, Grover Cleveland Look for: Elections where popular vote did not determine the winner</li> <li>71. If you see: Constitution strengthens central government results in a weak Articles of Confederation -Constitution strengthens central government results in a weak Articles of Confederation -Construction failed to help secure equality for black Americans -Spanish American War = First steps towards world affairs in Latin America -Corporations and wealthy dominate economy -Progressive Era creates reform for consumers/workers -WWI &amp; Roaring 20: Elsoitations (traditional policy) -Great Depression occurs from Laissez-Faire attitude New Deal = Increase in government participation to regulate economy -WWI Heads to US leader in world affair and end of isolationism -Cold War era = Containment of c</li></ul>	•
Look for: Limited students rights and protections in school settings 50. if you see: Chief Justice Earl Warren Look for: Increased Civil Rights, Activits justice/court, Upheld rights of the accused 51. if you see: Richard Nixon Look for: Resignation before decision in impeachment 52. if you see: Gerald Ford Look for: Covered trust in executive branch/government/President 53. if you see: Camp David Accords, Guif War, OPEC Look for: Lowered trust in executive branch/government/President 54. if you see: Camp David Accords, Guif War, OPEC Look for: Us negotiations and action in the Middle East 55. if you see: Supply Side Economics, Trickle Down Economics, Reaganomics Look for: Lowered taxes for wealthy 56. if you see: George H.W. Bush Look for: Resident aces, Guif War, 57. if you see: Gore v. Bush, John Quincy Adams, Samuel Tiden, Grover Cleveland Look for: Elections where popular vote did not determine the winner TIPES: 1) Remember, the Regents is mostly chronological so remember some main ideas in orderFounded to make money for Britain -Genstitution strong central government -Us remains neutral/isolated -Coriporations and wealthy dominate economy -Progressive Era creates reform for consumers/workers -WWI & Roaring 20'S = Isolationism (traditional policy) -Great Durase to US and wealthy dominate economy -Progressive Era creates reform for consumers/workers -WWI & Roaring 20'S = Isolationism (traditional policy) -Great Durases in government and renewed nativism 21 Don't forget: -The President appoints Supreme Court Justices -Farmers never win -Civil liberties (speech) are not guaranted and of isolationism -Cokid war era = Distrust of government and renewed nativism 23 Don't forget: -The President appoints Supreme Court Justices -Farmers never win -Civil liberties (speech) are not guaranted -Books lead to social change (Paine, Stowe, Mahan, Sinclair, Riis, Carson, Nader) -Boaks lead to social change (Paine, Stowe, Mahan, Sinclair, Riis, Carson, Nader) -Boaks lead to social change (Paine, Stowe, Mahan, Sinclair, R
<ul> <li>50. If you see: Chief Justice Earl Warren Look for: Increased Civil Rights, Activist justice/court, Upheld rights of the accused</li> <li>51. If you see: Richard Nixon Look for: Resignation before decision in impeachment</li> <li>52. If you see: Watergate Look for: Lowered trust in executive branch/government/President</li> <li>53. If you see: Carald Ford Look for: Only President to never have been elected (appointed by Nixon as he resigned)</li> <li>54. If you see: Carald Accords. Gulf War, OPEC Look for: US negoliations and action in the Middle East</li> <li>55. If you see: George H.W. Bush Look for: Raised taxes, Gulf War</li> <li>57. If you see: George H.W. Bush Look for: Raised taxes, Gulf War</li> <li>57. If you see: George H.W. Bush Look for: Raised taxes, Gulf War</li> <li>57. If you see: George H.W. Bush Look for: Raised taxes, Gulf War</li> <li>57. If you see: George H.W. Bush Look for: Raised taxes, Gulf War</li> <li>57. If you see: George H.W. Bush Look for: Raised taxes, Gulf War</li> <li>57. If you see: George H.W. Bush Look for: Raised taxes, Gulf War</li> <li>57. If you see: George H.W. Bush Look for: Raised taxes, Gulf War</li> <li>57. If you see: George H.W. Bush Look for: Raised taxes, Gulf War</li> <li>57. If you see: George H.W. Bush Look for: Raised taxes, Gulf War</li> <li>57. If you see: George H.W. Bush Look for: Raised taxes, Gulf War</li> <li>57. If you see: George H.W. Bush Look for: Raised taxes, Gulf War</li> <li>57. If you see: George H.W. Bush Look for: Raised taxes, Gulf War</li> <li>57. If you see: George H.W. Bush Look for: Raised taxes, Gulf War</li> <li>57. If you see: George H.W. Bush Look for: Raised taxes, Gulf War</li> <li>57. If you see: George H.W. Bush Look for: Raised taxes, Gulf War</li> <li>57. If you see: George H.W. Bush Look for: Raised taxes, Gulf War</li> <li>57. If you see: George H.W. Bush Look for: Constitution strengthens central government results in a weak Articles of Confederation -Constitution strengthens central government -Gorgerations and w</li></ul>
Look for: Increased Civil Rights, Activist justice/court, Upheld rights of the accused 51. If you see: Richard Nixon Look for: Resignation before decision in impeachment 52. If you see: Watergate Look for: Clowered trust in executive branch/government/President 53. If you see: Gerald Ford Look for: Chy President to never have been elected (appointed by Nixon as he resigned) 54. If you see: Supply Side Economics. Trickle Down Economics, Reaganomics Look for: Lowered taxes for wealthy 55. If you see: Supply Side Economics. Trickle Down Economics, Reaganomics Look for: Covered taxes for wealthy 56. If you see: George H.W. Bush Look for: Reised taxes, Gulf War 57. If you see: Gorge Y. Bush, John Quincy Adams, Samuel Tilden, Grover Cleveland Look for: Elections where popular vote did not determine the winner TIPS: 17 Remember, the Regents is mostly chronological so remember some main ideas in order. -Founded to make money for Britain -Fear of strong central government results in a weak Articles of Confederation -Constitution strengthens central government -US remains neutral/Isolated -Civil War over sectionalism/slavery -Reconstruction failed to help secure equality for black Americans -Spanish American War = First steps towards world affairs in Latin America -Corporations and wealthy dominate economy -Progressive Era creates reform for consumers/workers -WWI & Roaring 20's = Isolationism (traditional policy) -Great Depression occurs from world affair and end of isolationism -Cold War era = Containment of communism by giving economic aid -Modem era = Distrust of government and renewed nativism 2) Don't second guess yourself - they arent durated -Books lead to social change (Paine, Stowe, Mahan, Sinclair, Riis, Carson, Nader) 3) Read carefully and ecamine and tacptions and text in cartoons/maps/charts 4) Don't second guess yourself - they arent't trying to trick you! WHO WHAT WHEN WHERE WHY HOW CAUSE/EFFECT COMPARE/CONTRAST THEMATIC and DBQ TIPS: Brainstorm. Think of any term t
<ul> <li>51. If you see: Richard Nixon Look for: Resignation before decision in impeachment</li> <li>52. If you see: Watergate Look for: Lowered trust in executive branch/government/President</li> <li>53. If you see: Camp David Accords. Guif War, OPEC Look for: UN egotiations and action in the Middle East</li> <li>55. If you see: Supply Side Economics, Trickle Down Economics, Reaganomics Look for: Lowered taxes for wealthy</li> <li>56. If you see: Ceorge H.W. Bush Look for: Elections where popular vote dign determine the winner</li> <li>71. If you see: Ceorge H.W. Bush Look for: Elections where popular vote dign determine the winner</li> <li>71. If you see: Ceorge H.W. Bush Look for: Elections where popular vote dign determine the winner</li> <li>71. If you see: Core v Bush, John Quincy Adams, Samuel Tilden, Grover Cleveland Look for: Elections where popular vote dign determine the winner</li> <li>71. Founded to make more y for Britain -Fear of strong central government results in a weak Articles of Confederation -Constitution strengthens central government -US remains neutral/isolated</li> <li>-Civil War over sectionalism/slavery -Reconstruction failed to help secure equality for black Americans -Spanish American War = First steps towards world affairs in Latin America -Corporations and wealthy dominate economy -Progressive Era creates reform for consumers/workers -WWI &amp; Roaring 20's = Isolationism (traditional policy) -Great Depression occurs from Laissez-Faire attitude -New Deal = Increase in government participation to regulate economy -WWI leads to US leader in world affair and end of isolationism -Cold War era = Containment of communism by giving economic aid -Moder era = Distrust of government and renewed nativism</li> <li>2) Don't forget: -The President appoints Supreme Court Justices -Farmers never win -Civil liberties grainment of advart and end of isolationism -Cold War era = Containment of communism by giving economic aid -Moder era = Distrust of government and renewed nativism</li> <li>2) Don't for</li></ul>	•
<ul> <li>Look for: Resignation before decision in impeachment</li> <li>52. If you see: Watergate Look for: Lowered trust in executive branch/government/President</li> <li>53. If you see: Cerald Ford Look for: Only President to never have been elected (appointed by Nixon as he resigned)</li> <li>54. If you see: Camp David Accords. Gulf Wan, OPEC Look for: Us negotiations and action in the Middle East</li> <li>55. If you see: Capply Side Economics, Trickle Down Economics, Reaganomics Look for: Lowered taxes for wealthy</li> <li>56. If you see: George H.W. Bush Look for: Reised taxes, Gulf War</li> <li>57. If you see: Gorge v. Bush, John Quincy Adams, Samuel Tilden, Grover Cleveland Look for: Elections where popular vote did not determine the winner</li> <li>TIPS:</li> <li>1) Remember, the Regents is mostly chronological so remember some main ideas in orderFounded to make money for Britain -Fear of strong central government results in a weak Articles of Confederation -Constitution strengthens central government</li> <li>-US remains neutral/isolated</li> <li>-Civil War over sectionalism/slavery</li> <li>-Reconstruction failed to help secure equality for black Americans</li> <li>-Spanish American War = First steps towards world affairs in Latin America</li> <li>-Corporations and wealthy dominate economy -Progressive Era creates reform for consumers/workers</li> <li>-WWI Reading 20's = Isolationism (traditional policy)</li> <li>-Great Depression occurs from Laissez-Faire attitude</li> <li>-New Del = Increase in government participation to regulate economy.</li> <li>-WWI leads to US leader in world affair and end of isolationism -Cold War are a Containment of communism by giving economic aid -Modern era = Distrust of government and renewed nativism</li> <li>2) Don't forget: -The President appoints Supreme Court Justices -Farmers never win -Civil liberties (speech) are not guaranteed -Books lead to social change (Paine, Stow, Mahan, Sinclair, Riis, Carson, Nader)</li> <li>3) Read carefully and examine at /Lapations</li></ul>
<ul> <li>52. If you see: Watergate Look for: Lowered trust in executive branch/government/President</li> <li>53. If you see: Gerald Ford Look for: Only President to never have been elected (appointed by Nixon as he resigned)</li> <li>54. If you see: Camp David Accords. Gulf War, OPEC Look for: US negotiations and action in the Middle East</li> <li>55. If you see: Supply Side Economics, Trickle Down Economics, Reaganomics Look for: Lowered taxes for wealthy</li> <li>56. If you see: George H.W. Bush Look for: Risied taxes, Gulf War</li> <li>57. If you see: George H.W. Bush Look for: Elections where popular vole did not determine the winner</li> <li>TIPS:</li> <li>1) Remember, the Regents is mostly chronological so remember some main ideas in order. -Founded to make money for Britain -Constitution strengthens; central government</li> <li>-US remains neutral/isolated</li> <li>-Civil War over sectionality/slavery</li> <li>-Reconstruction failed to help secure equality for black Americans</li> <li>-Spanish American War = First steps towards world affairs in Latin America</li> <li>-Corporations and wealthy dominate economy</li> <li>-Progressive Era creates reform for consumers/workers</li> <li>-WWI R Raaring 20's = Isolationism (traditional policy)</li> <li>-Great Depression occurs from Laissez-Faire attitude</li> <li>-New Deal = Increase in government and end of isolationism</li> <li>-Cold War era = -Containment of communism by giving economic aid</li> <li>-Modern era = Distrust of government and renewed nativism</li> <li>2) Don't forget:</li> <li>-The President appoints Supreme Court Justices</li> <li>-Farmers never win</li> <li>-Civil liberties are limited in times of war</li> <li>-Civil liberties areal at a captions and text in cartoons/maps/chart</li></ul>	•
<ul> <li>Look for: Lowered trust in executive branch/government/President</li> <li>53. If you see: Geraid Ford Look for: Only President to never have been elected (appointed by Nixon as he resigned)</li> <li>54. If you see: Camp David Accords. Gulf War, OPEC Look for: US negotiations and action in the Middle East</li> <li>55. If you see: Supply Side Economics, Trickle Down Economics, Reaganomics Look for: Lowered taxes for weathy</li> <li>56. If you see: George H.W. Bush Look for: Raised taxes, Gulf War</li> <li>57. If you see: Gore v. Bush, John Quincy Adams, Samuel Tilden, Grover Cleveland Look for: Raised taxes, Gulf War</li> <li>57. If you see: Gore v. Bush, John Quincy Adams, Samuel Tilden, Grover Cleveland Look for: Between the two popular vote did not determine the winner</li> <li>TIPS:</li> <li>1) Remember, the Regents is mostly chronological so remember some main ideas in order. <ul> <li>-Founded to make money for Britain</li> <li>-Fear of strong central government results in a weak Articles of Confederation</li> <li>-Constitution strengthens central government</li> <li>-US remains neutral/isolated</li> <li>-Civil War over sectionalism/slavery</li> <li>-Reconstruction falled to help secure equality for black Americans</li> <li>-Spanish American War = First steps towards world affairs in Latin America</li> <li>-Corporations and wealthy dominate economy <ul> <li>-Progressive Era creates reform for consumers/workers</li> <li>-WWI &amp; Roaring 20's = Isolationism (traditional policy)</li> <li>-Great Depression occurs from Laisez-Faire attitude</li> <li>New Deal = Increase in government and renewed nativism</li> </ul> </li> <li>2) Don't forget: <ul> <li>The President appoints Supreme Court Justices</li> <li>-Farmers never win</li> <li>-Civil liberties (speech) are not guaranteed</li> <li>Book lead to scala change (Paine, Stowe, Mahan, Sinclair, Riis, Carson, Nader)</li> </ul> </li> <li>3) Read carefully and examine afficing and text in cartoons/maps/charts</li> <li>4) Don't seecond guess yourself - they aren</li></ul></li></ul>
<ul> <li>53. If you see: Gerald Ford Look for: Only President to never have been elected (appointed by Nixon as he resigned)</li> <li>54. If you see: Camp David Accords. Gulf War, OPEC Look for: US negotiations and action in the Middle East</li> <li>55. If you see: George H.W. Bush Look for: Lowered taxes for wealthy</li> <li>57. If you see: George H.W. Bush Look for: Elections where popular vote did not determine the winner</li> <li>TIPS: 11. Remember, the Regents is mostly chronological so remember some main ideas in order. -Founded to make money for Britain -Fear of strong central government results in a weak Articles of Confederation -Constitution strengthens central governmentUS remains neutral/isolated -Corporations and wealthy dominate economyProgressive Era creates reform for consumers/workers -Spanish American War = First steps towards world affairs in Latin America -Corporations and wealthy dominate economyProgressive Era creates reform for consumers/workers -WWI Is Roaring 20's = Isolationism (traditional policy) -Great Depression occurs from Laissez-Faire attitude -New Deal = Increase in government and renewed nativism 21 Dor't forget: -The President appoints Supreme Court Justices -Farmers never win -Civil liberties (speech) are not guaranteed -Books lead to social change (Paine, Stowe, Mahan, Sinclair, Riis, Carson, Nader) 31 Read carfully and examine and renewed nativism 2) Don't second guess yourself - they aren't trying to trick you!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!</li></ul>
Look for: Only President to never have been elected (appointed by Nixon as he resigned) 54. If you see: Camp David Accords. Gulf War, OPEC Look for: US negotiations and action in the Middle East 55. If you see: Supply Side Economics, Trickle Down Economics, Reaganomics Look for: Lowered taxes for wealthy 56. If you see: George H.W. Bush Look for: Raised taxes, Gulf War 57. If you see: Gore v. Bush, John Quincy Adams, Samuel Tilden, Grover Cleveland Look for: Elections where popular vote did not determine the winner TIPS: 1) Remember, the Regents is mostly chronological so remember some main ideas in order. -Founded to make money for Britain -Fear of strong central government results in a weak Articles of Confederation -Constitution strengthens central government -US remains neutral/isolated -Civil War over sectionalism/slavery -Reconstruction failed to help secure equality for black Americans -Spanish American War = First steps towards world affairs in Latin America -Corporations and wealthy dominate economy -Progressive Era creates reform for consumers/workers -WWI & Roaring 20's = Isolationism (traditional policy) -Great Depression occurs from Laissez-Faire attitude -New Deal = Increase in government participation to regulate economy -WWII leads to US leader in world affair and end of isolationism -Cold War era = Distrust of government and renewed nativism 2) Don't forget: -The President appoints Supreme Court Justices -Farmers never win -Civil liberties are limitted in times of war -Civil liberties are limited in times of wa	Look for: Lowered trust in executive branch/government/President
<ul> <li>54. If you see: Camp David Accords. Gulf War, OPEC Look for: US negotiations and action in the Middle East</li> <li>55. If you see: Supply Side Economics, Trickle Down Economics, Reaganomics Look for: Lowered taxes for wealthy</li> <li>56. If you see: George H.W. Bush Look for: Raised taxes, Gulf War</li> <li>57. If you see: Gore v. Bush, John Quincy Adams, Samuel Tilden, Grover Cleveland Look for: Elections where popular vote did not determine the winner</li> <li>TIPS:</li> <li>1) Remember, the Regents is mostly chronological so remember some main ideas in order. -Founded to make money for Britain -Fear of strong central government results in a weak Articles of Confederation -Constitution strengthens central government -US remains neutral/isolated -Civil War over sectionalism/slavery -Reconstruction failed to help secure equality for black Americans -Spanish American War = First steps towards world affairs in Latin America -Corporations and wealthy dominate economy -Progressive Era creates reform for consumers/workers -WWI &amp; Roaring 20's = Lisolationism (Triaditional policy) -Great Depression occurs from Laissez-Faire attitude -New Deal = Increase in government participation to regulate economy -WWI leads to US leader in world affair and end of isolationism -Cold War era = Distrust of government and renewed nativism 2) Don't forget: -The President appoints Supreme Court Justices -Farmers never win -Civil liberties are limited in times of war -Civil liberties (speech) are not guaranteed -Books lead to social change (Paine, Stowe, Mahan, Sinclair, Riis, Carson, Nader)</li> <li>3) Read carefully and examine all captions and text in cartoons/maps/charts</li> <li>4) Don't second guess yourself - they aren't trying t</li></ul>	B. If you see: Gerald Ford
<ul> <li>Look for: US negotiations and action in the Middle East</li> <li>55. If you see: Supply Side Economics, Trickle Down Economics, Reaganomics Look for: Lowered taxes for wealthy</li> <li>56. If you see: George H.W. Bush Look for: Raised taxes, Gulf War</li> <li>57. If you see: Gore v. Bush, John Quincy Adams, Samuel Tilden, Grover Cleveland Look for: Elections where popular vote did not determine the winner</li> <li>TIPS:</li> <li>1) Remember, the Regents is mostly chronological so remember some main ideas in order. -Founded to make money for Britain -Fear of strong central government results in a weak Articles of Confederation -Constitution strengthens central government -US remains neutral/isolated -Civil War over sectionalism/slavery -Reconstruction failed to help secure equality for black Americans -Spanish American War = First steps towards world affairs in Latin America -Corporations and wealthy dominate economy -Progressive Era creates reform for consumers/workers -WWI &amp; Roaring 20's = Isolationism (traditional policy) -Great Depression occurs from Laissez-Faire attitude -New Deal = Increase in government participation to regulate economy -WWI leads to US leader in world affair and end of isolationism -Cold War era = Containment of communism by giving economic aid -Modern era = Distrust of government and renewed nativism 2) Don't forget: -The President appoints Supreme Court Justices -Farmers never win -Civil liberties are limited in times of war -Civil liberties are limited in times of war -Civil liberties (speech) are not guaranteed -Books lead to social change (Paine, Stowe, Mahan, Sinclair, Riis, Carson, Nader) 3) Read carefully and examine all captions and text in cartoons/maps/charts 4) Don't second guess yourself - they aren't trying to trick you! WHO WHAT WHERE WHY HOW CAUSE/EFFECT COMPARE/CONTRAST THEMATIC and DBQ TIPS: Brainstorm. Think of any term that may be related to the theme presented. Elaborate, elaborate, elaborate.</li> </ul>	Look for: Only President to never have been elected (appointed by Nixon as he resigned)
<ul> <li>55. If you see: Supply Side Economics, Trickle Down Economics, Reaganomics Look for: Lowered taxes for wealthy</li> <li>56. If you see: George H.W. Bush Look for: Raised taxes, Gulf War</li> <li>57. If you see: Gore v. Bush, John Quincy Adams, Samuel Tilden, Grover Cleveland Look for: Elections where popular vote did not determine the winner</li> <li>TIPS:</li> <li>1) Remember, the Regents is mostly chronological so remember some main ideas in orderFounded to make money for Britain -Fear of strong central government results in a weak Articles of Confederation -Constitution strengthens central government -US remains neutral/isolated</li> <li>Civil War over sectionalism/slavery</li> <li>Reconstruction failed to help secure equality for black Americans</li> <li>Spanish American War = First steps towards world affairs in Latin America</li> <li>Corporations and wealthy dominate economy -Progressive Era creates reform for consumers/workers</li> <li>WWI &amp; Roaring 20's = Isolationism (traditional policy)</li> <li>Great Depression occurs from Laissez-Faire attitude</li> <li>New Deal = Increase in government and renewed nativism</li> <li>2) Don't forget: -The President appoints Supreme Court Justices -Farmers never win -Civil liberties are limited in times of war -Civil liberties are limited in times of</li></ul>	I. If you see: Camp David Accords. Gulf War, OPEC
<ul> <li>Look for: Lowered taxes for wealthy</li> <li>56. If you see: George H.W. Bush Look for: Raised taxes, Gulf War</li> <li>57. If you see: Gore v. Bush, John Quincy Adams, Samuel Tilden, Grover Cleveland Look for: Elections where popular vote did not determine the winner</li> <li>TIPS:</li> <li>1) Remember, the Regents is mostly chronological so remember some main ideas in order. -Founded to make money for Britain -Fear of strong central government results in a weak Articles of Confederation -Constitution strengthens central government</li> <li>-US remains neutral/isolated</li> <li>-Civil War over sectionalism/slavery</li> <li>-Reconstruction failed to help secure equality for black Americans</li> <li>-Spanish American War = First steps towards world affairs in Latin America</li> <li>-Corporations and wealthy dominate economy</li> <li>-Progressive Era creates reform for consumers/workers</li> <li>-WWI &amp; Roaring 20's = Isolationism (traditional policy)</li> <li>-Great Depression occurs from Laissez-Faire attitude</li> <li>-New Deal = Increase in government participation to regulate economy</li> <li>-WWII leads to US leader in world affair and end of isolationism</li> <li>-Cold War era = Containment of communism by giving economic aid</li> <li>-Modern era = Distrust of government and renewed nativism</li> <li>2) Don't forget:</li> <li>-The President appoints Supreme Court Justices</li> <li>-Farmers never win</li> <li>-Civil liberties are limited in times of war</li> <li>-Civil liberties are allocations and text in cartoons/maps/charts</li> <li>4) Don't second guess yourself - they aren't trying to trick you!</li> </ul> WHO WHAT WHENE WHERE WHY HOW CAUSE/EFFECT COMPARE/CONTRAST THEMATIC and DBQ TIPS: Brainstorm. Think of any term that may be related to the theme presented. Elaborate, elaborate. Use as many actual e	Look for: US negotiations and action in the Middle East
<ul> <li>Look for: Lowered taxes for wealthy</li> <li>56. If you see: George H.W. Bush Look for: Raised taxes, Gulf War</li> <li>57. If you see: Gore v. Bush, John Quincy Adams, Samuel Tilden, Grover Cleveland Look for: Elections where popular vote did not determine the winner</li> <li>TIPS:</li> <li>1) Remember, the Regents is mostly chronological so remember some main ideas in order. -Founded to make money for Britain -Fear of strong central government results in a weak Articles of Confederation -Constitution strengthens central government</li> <li>-US remains neutral/isolated</li> <li>-Civil War over sectionalism/slavery</li> <li>-Reconstruction failed to help secure equality for black Americans</li> <li>-Spanish American War = First steps towards world affairs in Latin America</li> <li>-Corporations and wealthy dominate economy</li> <li>-Progressive Era creates reform for consumers/workers</li> <li>-WWI &amp; Roaring 20's = Isolationism (traditional policy)</li> <li>-Great Depression occurs from Laissez-Faire attitude</li> <li>-New Deal = Increase in government participation to regulate economy</li> <li>-WWII leads to US leader in world affair and end of isolationism</li> <li>-Cold War era = Containment of communism by giving economic aid</li> <li>-Modern era = Distrust of government and renewed nativism</li> <li>2) Don't forget:</li> <li>-The President appoints Supreme Court Justices</li> <li>-Farmers never win</li> <li>-Civil liberties are limited in times of war</li> <li>-Civil liberties are allocations and text in cartoons/maps/charts</li> <li>4) Don't second guess yourself - they aren't trying to trick you!</li> </ul> WHO WHAT WHENE WHERE WHY HOW CAUSE/EFFECT COMPARE/CONTRAST THEMATIC and DBQ TIPS: Brainstorm. Think of any term that may be related to the theme presented. Elaborate, elaborate. Use as many actual e	. If you see: Supply Side Economics, Trickle Down Economics, Reaganomics
<ul> <li>56. If you see: George H.W. Bush Look for: Raised taxes, Guif War</li> <li>57. If you see: Gore v. Bush, John Quincy Adams, Samuel Tilden, Grover Cleveland Look for: Elections where popular vote did not determine the winner</li> <li>TIPS:</li> <li>1) Remember, the Regents is mostly chronological so remember some main ideas in order. -Founded to make money for Britain -Fear of strong central government results in a weak Articles of Confederation -Constitution strengthens central government -US remains neutral/isolated -Civil War over sectionalism/slavery -Reconstruction failed to help secure equality for black Americans -Spanish American War = First steps towards world affairs in Latin America -Corporations and wealthy dominate economy -Progressive Era creates reform for consumers/workers -WWI &amp; Roaring 20's = Isolationism (traditional policy) -Great Depression occurs from Laissez-Faire attitude -New Deal = Increase in government and renewed nativism 2) Don't forget: -The President appoints Supreme Court Justices -Farmers never win -Civil liberties are limited in times of war -Civil liberties (speech) are not guaranteed -Books lead to social change (Paine, Stowe, Mahan, Sinclair, Riis, Carson, Nader) 3) Read carefully and examine all captions and text in cartoons/maps/charts 4) Don't second guess yourself - they aren't trying to trick you!</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>Look for: Raised taxes, Gulf War</li> <li>57. If you see: Gore v. Bush, John Quincy Adams, Samuel Tilden, Grover Cleveland Look for: Elections where popular vole did not determine the winner</li> <li>TIPS:</li> <li>1) Remember, the Regents is mostly chronological so remember some main ideas in order. -Founded to make money for Britain -Fear of strong central government results in a weak Articles of Confederation -Constitution strengthens central government -US remains neutral/isolated -Civil War over sectionalism/slavery -Reconstruction failed to help secure equality for black Americans -Spanish American War = First steps towards world affairs in Latin America -Corporations and wealthy dominate economy -Progressive Era creates reform for consumers/workers -WWI &amp; Roaring 20's = Isolationism (traditional policy) -Great Depression occurs from Laissez-Faire attitude -New Deal = Increase in government participation to regulate economy -WWII leads to US leader in world affair and end of isolationism -Cold War era = Containment of communism by giving economic aid -Modern era = Distrust of government and renewed nativism</li> <li>2) Don't forget: -The President appoints Supreme Court Justices -Farmers never win -Civil liberties (speech) are not guaranteed -Books lead to social change (Paine, Stowe, Mahan, Sinclair, Riis, Carson, Nader)</li> <li>3) Read carefully and examine all captions and text in cartoons/maps/charts</li> <li>4) Don't second guess yourself - they aren't trying to trick you!</li> <li>WHO WHAT WHEN WHERE WHY HOW CAUSE/EFFECT COMPARE/CONTRAST THEMATIC and DBQ TIPS: Brainstorm. Think of any term that may be related to the theme presented. Elaborate, elaborate, User alaborate.</li> <li>Use as many actual excerpts/quotes/data from the documents to support your case.</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>57. If you see: Gore v. Bush, John Quincy Adams, Samuel Tilden, Grover Cleveland Look for: Elections where popular vote did not determine the winner</li> <li>TIPS:</li> <li>1) Remember, the Regents is mostly chronological so remember some main ideas in order.</li> <li>-Founded to make money for Britain</li> <li>-Fear of strong central government results in a weak Articles of Confederation</li> <li>-Constitution strengthens central government</li> <li>-US remains neutral/isolated</li> <li>-Civil War over sectionalism/slavery</li> <li>-Reconstruction failed to help secure equality for black Americans</li> <li>-Spanish American War = First steps towards world affairs in Latin America</li> <li>-Corporations and wealthy dominate economy</li> <li>-Progressive Era creates reform for consumers/workers</li> <li>-WWI &amp; Roaring 20's = Isolationism (traditional policy)</li> <li>-Great Depression occurs from Laissez-Faire attitude</li> <li>-New Deal = Increase in government participation to regulate economy</li> <li>-WWI leads to US leader in world affair and end of isolationism</li> <li>-Cold War era = Containment of communism by giving economic aid</li> <li>-Modern era = Distrust of government and renewed nativism</li> <li>2) Don't forget:</li> <li>-The President appoints Supreme Court Justices</li> <li>-Farmers never win</li> <li>-Civil liberties (speech) are not guaranteed</li> <li>-Books lead to social change (Paine, Stowe, Mahan, Sinclair, Riis, Carson, Nader)</li> <li>3) Read carefully and examine all captions and text in cartoons/maps/charts</li> <li>4) Don't second guess yourself - they aren't trying to trick you!</li> <li>WHO WHAT WHERE WHY HOW CAUSE/EFFECT COMPARE/CONTRAST</li> <li>THEMATIC and DBQ TIPS:</li> <li>Brainstorm, Think of any term that may be related to the theme presented.</li> <li>Elaborate, elaborate.</li> <li>Use as many actual excerpts/quotes/data from the documents to support your case.</li> </ul>
Look for: Elections where popular vote did not determine the winner         TIPS:         1) Remember, the Regents is mostly chronological so remember some main ideas in order. <ul> <li>Founded to make money for Britain</li> <li>Fear of strong central government results in a weak Articles of Confederation</li> <li>Constitution strengthens central government</li> <li>US remains neutral/isolated</li> <li>Civil War over sectionalism/slavery</li> <li>Reconstruction failed to help secure equality for black Americans</li> <li>Spanish American War = First steps towards world affairs in Latin America</li> <li>Corporations and wealthy dominate economy         <ul> <li>Progressive Era creates reform for consumers/workers</li> <li>WWI &amp; Roaring 20's = Isolationism (traditional policy)</li> <li>Great Depression occurs from Laissez-Faire attitude</li> <li>New Deal = Increase in government participation to regulate economy</li> <li>WWII leads to US leader in world affair and end of isolationism</li> <li>Cold War era = Containment of communism by giving economic aid</li> <li>Modern era = Distrust of government and renewed nativism</li> </ul> </li> <li>2) Don't forget:         <ul> <li>The President appoints Supreme Court Justices</li> <li>Farmers never win</li> <li>Civil liberties (speech) are not guaranteed</li> <li>Books lead to social change (Paine, Stowe, Mahan, Sinclair, Riis, Carson, Nader)</li> </ul> </li> <li>3) Read carefully and examine all captions and text in cartoons/maps/charts</li> <li>4) Don't second guess yourself - they aren't trying to trick you!</li> </ul> <li>WHO WHAT WHEN WHERE WHY HOW CAUSE/EFFECT COMPARE/CONTRAST THEMATIC and DBQ TIPS:</li> <li>Brainstorm, Think of any term that may be r</li>
<ul> <li>TIPS:</li> <li>1) Remember, the Regents is mostly chronological so remember some main ideas in order. <ul> <li>-Founded to make money for Britain</li> <li>-Fear of strong central government results in a weak Articles of Confederation</li> <li>-Constitution strengthens central government</li> <li>-US remains neutral/isolated</li> <li>-Civil War over sectionalism/slavery</li> <li>-Reconstruction failed to help secure equality for black Americans</li> <li>-Spanish American War = First steps towards world affairs in Latin America</li> <li>-Corporations and wealthy dominate economy</li> <li>-Progressive Era creates reform for consumers/workers</li> <li>-WWI &amp; Roaring 20's = Isolationism (traditional policy)</li> <li>-Great Depression occurs from Laissez-Faire attitude</li> <li>-New Deal = Increase in government participation to regulate economy</li> <li>-WWII leads to US leader in world affair and end of isolationism</li> <li>-Cold War era = Containment of communism by giving economic aid</li> <li>-Modern era = Distrust of government and renewed nativism</li> </ul> 2) Don't forget: <ul> <li>-The President appoints Supreme Court Justices</li> <li>-Farmers never win</li> <li>-Civil liberties (speech) are not guaranteed</li> <li>-Books lead to social change (Paine, Stowe, Mahan, Sinclair, Riis, Carson, Nader)</li> </ul> 3) Read carefully and examine all captions and text in cartoons/maps/charts 4) Don't second guess yourself - they aren't trying to trick you! WHO WHAT WHEN WHERE WHY HOW CAUSE/EFFECT COMPARE/CONTRAST THEMATIC and DBQ TIPS: Brainstorm, Think of any term that may be related to the theme presented. Elaborate, elaborate, elaborate. Use as many actual excepts/quotes/data from the documents to support your case.</li></ul>
<ul> <li>1) Remember, the Regents is mostly chronological so remember some main ideas in order. <ul> <li>-Founded to make money for Britain</li> <li>-Fear of strong central government results in a weak Articles of Confederation</li> <li>-Constitution strengthens central government</li> <li>-US remains neutral/isolated</li> <li>-Civil War over sectionalism/slavery</li> <li>-Reconstruction failed to help secure equality for black Americans</li> <li>-Spanish American War = First steps towards world affairs in Latin America</li> <li>-Coroporations and wealthy dominate economy <ul> <li>-Progressive Era creates reform for consumers/workers</li> <li>-WWI &amp; Roaring 20's = Isolationism (traditional policy)</li> <li>-Great Depression occurs from Laissez-Faire attitude</li> <li>-New Deal = Increase in government participation to regulate economy</li> <li>-WWII leads to US leader in world affair and end of isolationism</li> <li>-Cold War era = Containment of communism by giving economic aid</li> <li>-Modern era = Distrust of government and renewed nativism</li> </ul> </li> <li>2) Don't forget: <ul> <li>-The President appoints Supreme Court Justices</li> <li>-Farmers never win</li> <li>-Civil liberties (speech) are not guaranteed</li> <li>-Books lead to social change (Paine, Stowe, Mahan, Sinclair, Riis, Carson, Nader)</li> </ul> </li> <li>3) Read carefully and examine all captions and text in cartoons/maps/charts</li> <li>4) Don't second guess yourself - they aren't trying to trick you!</li> </ul> </li> <li>WHO WHAT WHERE WHY HOW CAUSE/EFFECT COMPARE/CONTRAST THEMATIC and DBQ TIPS:</li> <li>Brainstorm. Think of any term that may be related to the theme presented.</li> <li>Elaborate, elaborate, elaborate.</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>-Founded to make money for Britain <ul> <li>-Fear of strong central government results in a weak Articles of Confederation</li> <li>-Constitution strengthens central government</li> <li>-US remains neutral/isolated</li> <li>-Civil War over sectionalism/slavery</li> <li>-Reconstruction failed to help secure equality for black Americans</li> <li>-Spanish American War = First steps towards world affairs in Latin America</li> <li>-Corporations and wealthy dominate economy <ul> <li>-Progressive Era creates reform for consumers/workers</li> <li>-WWI &amp; Roaring 20's = Isolationism (traditional policy)</li> <li>-Great Depression occurs from Laissez-Faire attitude</li> <li>-New Deal = Increase in government participation to regulate economy</li> <li>-WWII leads to US leader in world affair and end of isolationism</li> <li>-Cold War era = Containment of communism by giving economic aid</li> <li>-Modern era = Distrust of government and renewed nativism</li> </ul> </li> <li>2) Don't forget: <ul> <li>-The President appoints Supreme Court Justices</li> <li>-Farmers never win</li> <li>-Civil liberties are limited in times of war</li> <li>-Civil liberties (speech) are not guaranteed</li> <li>-Books lead to social change (Paine, Stowe, Mahan, Sinclair, Riis, Carson, Nader)</li> </ul> </li> <li>3) Read carefully and examine all captions and text in cartoons/maps/charts</li> <li>4) Don't second guess yourself - they aren't trying to trick you!</li> </ul> </li> <li>WHO WHAT WHERE WHY HOW CAUSE/EFFECT COMPARE/CONTRAST THEMATIC and DBQ TIPS:</li> <li>Brainstorn. Think of any term that may be related to the theme presented.</li> <li>Elaborate, elaborate, elaborate.</li> </ul>	-
<ul> <li>-Fear of strong central government results in a weak Articles of Confederation <ul> <li>-Constitution strengthens central government</li> <li>-US remains neutral/isolated</li> <li>-Civil War over sectionalism/slavery</li> <li>-Reconstruction failed to help secure equality for black Americans</li> <li>-Spanish American War = First steps towards world affairs in Latin America</li> <li>-Corporations and wealthy dominate economy</li> <li>-Progressive Era creates reform for consumers/workers</li> <li>-WWI &amp; Roaring 20's = Isolationism (traditional policy)</li> <li>-Great Depression occurs from Laissez-Faire attitude</li> <li>-New Deal = Increase in government participation to regulate economy</li> <li>-WWI I leads to US leader in world affair and end of isolationism</li> <li>-Cold War era = Containment of communism by giving economic aid</li> <li>-Modern era = Distrust of government and renewed nativism</li> </ul> </li> <li>2) Don't forget: <ul> <li>The President appoints Supreme Court Justices</li> <li>-Farmers never win</li> <li>-Civil liberties (speech) are not guaranteed</li> <li>-Books lead to social change (Paine, Stowe, Mahan, Sinclair, Riis, Carson, Nader)</li> </ul> </li> <li>3) Read carefully and examine all captions and text in cartoons/maps/charts</li> <li>4) Don't second guess yourself - they aren't trying to trick you!</li> </ul> <li>WHO WHAT WHEN WHERE WHY HOW CAUSE/EFFECT COMPARE/CONTRAST THEMATIC and DBQ TIPS: Brainstorm. Think of any term that may be related to the theme presented. Elaborate, elaborate, elaborate, elaborate.</li>
<ul> <li>-US remains neutral/isolated</li> <li>-Civil War over sectionalism/slavery</li> <li>-Reconstruction failed to help secure equality for black Americans</li> <li>-Spanish American War = First steps towards world affairs in Latin America</li> <li>-Corporations and wealthy dominate economy <ul> <li>-Progressive Era creates reform for consumers/workers</li> <li>-WWI &amp; Roaring 20's = Isolationism (traditional policy)</li> <li>-Great Depression occurs from Laissez-Faire attitude</li> <li>-New Deal = Increase in government participation to regulate economy</li> <li>-WWII leads to US leader in world affair and end of isolationism</li> <li>-Cold War era = Containment of communism by giving economic aid</li> <li>-Modern era = Distrust of government and renewed nativism</li> </ul> </li> <li>2) Don't forget: <ul> <li>The President appoints Supreme Court Justices</li> <li>-Farmers never win</li> <li>-Civil liberties (speech) are not guaranteed</li> <li>-Books lead to social change (Paine, Stowe, Mahan, Sinclair, Riis, Carson, Nader)</li> </ul> </li> <li>3) Read carefully and examine all captions and text in cartoons/maps/charts</li> <li>4) Don't second guess yourself - they aren't trying to trick you!</li> </ul> <li>WHO WHAT WHEN WHERE WHY HOW CAUSE/EFFECT COMPARE/CONTRAST THEMATIC and DBQ TIPS: Brainstorm. Think of any term that may be related to the theme presented. Elaborate, elaborate. Use as many actual excerpts/quotes/data from the documents to support your case.</li>	-rounded to make money for Britain
<ul> <li>-Civil War over sectionalism/slavery         <ul> <li>Reconstruction failed to help secure equality for black Americans</li> <li>Spanish American War = First steps towards world affairs in Latin America</li> <li>-Corporations and wealthy dominate economy</li></ul></li></ul>
<ul> <li>-Reconstruction failed to help secure equality for black Americans</li> <li>-Spanish American War = First steps towards world affairs in Latin America</li> <li>-Corporations and wealthy dominate economy         <ul> <li>-Progressive Era creates reform for consumers/workers</li> <li>-WWI &amp; Roaring 20's = Isolationism (traditional policy)</li> <li>-Great Depression occurs from Laissez-Faire attitude</li> <li>-New Deal = Increase in government participation to regulate economy</li> <li>-WWI leads to US leader in world affair and end of isolationism</li> <li>-Cold War era = Containment of communism by giving economic aid</li> <li>-Modern era = Distrust of government and renewed nativism</li> </ul> </li> <li>2) Don't forget:         <ul> <li>The President appoints Supreme Court Justices</li> <li>-Farmers never win</li> <li>-Civil liberties are limited in times of war</li> <li>Civil liberties (speech) are not guaranteed</li> <li>-Books lead to social change (Paine, Stowe, Mahan, Sinclair, Riis, Carson, Nader)</li> </ul> </li> <li>3) Read carefully and examine all captions and text in cartoons/maps/charts</li> <li>4) Don't second guess yourself - they aren't trying to trick you!</li> <li>WHO WHAT WHEN WHERE WHY HOW CAUSE/EFFECT COMPARE/CONTRAST THEMATIC and DBQ TIPS:</li> <li>Brainstorm. Think of any term that may be related to the theme presented.</li> <li>Elaborate, elaborate.</li> <li>Use as many actual excerpts/quotes/data from the documents to support your case.</li> </ul>	-Fear of strong central government results in a weak Articles of Confederation -Constitution strengthens central government
<ul> <li>-Spanish American War = First steps towards world affairs in Latin America</li> <li>-Corporations and wealthy dominate economy <ul> <li>-Progressive Era creates reform for consumers/workers</li> <li>-WWI &amp; Roaring 20's = Isolationism (traditional policy)</li> <li>-Great Depression occurs from Laissez-Faire attitude</li> <li>-New Deal = Increase in government participation to regulate economy</li> <li>-WII leads to US leader in world affair and end of isolationism</li> <li>-Cold War era = Containment of communism by giving economic aid</li> <li>-Modern era = Distrust of government and renewed nativism</li> </ul> </li> <li>2) Don't forget: <ul> <li>The President appoints Supreme Court Justices</li> <li>-Farmers never win</li> <li>-Civil liberties are limited in times of war</li> <li>-Civil liberties (speech) are not guaranteed</li> <li>-Books lead to social change (Paine, Stowe, Mahan, Sinclair, Riis, Carson, Nader)</li> </ul> </li> <li>3) Read carefully and examine all captions and text in cartoons/maps/charts</li> <li>4) Don't second guess yourself - they aren't trying to trick you!</li> </ul> WHO WHAT WHENE WHY HOW CAUSE/EFFECT COMPARE/CONTRAST THEMATIC and DBQ TIPS: Brainstorm. Think of any term that may be related to the theme presented. Elaborate, elaborate, elaborate. Use as many actual excerpts/quotes/data from the documents to support your case.	-Fear of strong central government results in a weak Articles of Confederation -Constitution strengthens central government -US remains neutral/isolated
<ul> <li>-Corporations and wealthy dominate economy         <ul> <li>-Progressive Era creates reform for consumers/workers</li> <li>-WWI &amp; Roaring 20's = Isolationism (traditional policy)</li> <li>-Great Depression occurs from Laissez-Faire attitude</li> <li>-New Deal = Increase in government participation to regulate economy</li> <li>-WWII leads to US leader in world affair and end of isolationism</li> <li>-Cold War era = Containment of communism by giving economic aid</li> <li>-Modern era = Distrust of government and renewed nativism</li> </ul> </li> <li>2) Don't forget: <ul> <li>The President appoints Supreme Court Justices</li> <li>-Farmers never win</li> <li>-Civil liberties (speech) are not guaranteed</li> <li>-Books lead to social change (Paine, Stowe, Mahan, Sinclair, Riis, Carson, Nader)</li> </ul> </li> <li>3) Read carefully and examine all captions and text in cartoons/maps/charts</li> <li>4) Don't second guess yourself - they aren't trying to trick you!</li> </ul> <li>WHO WHAT WHEN WHERE WHY HOW CAUSE/EFFECT COMPARE/CONTRAST THEMATIC and DBQ TIPS:</li> <li>Brainstorm. Think of any term that may be related to the theme presented.</li> <li>Elaborate, elaborate, elaborate.</li> <li>Use as many actual excerpts/quotes/data from the documents to support your case.</li>	<ul> <li>-Fear of strong central government results in a weak Articles of Confederation</li> <li>-Constitution strengthens central government</li> <li>-US remains neutral/isolated</li> <li>-Civil War over sectionalism/slavery</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>-WWI &amp; Roaring 20's = Isolationism (traditional policy)</li> <li>-Great Depression occurs from Laissez-Faire attitude</li> <li>-New Deal = Increase in government participation to regulate economy</li> <li>-WWII leads to US leader in world affair and end of isolationism</li> <li>-Cold War era = Containment of communism by giving economic aid</li> <li>-Modern era = Distrust of government and renewed nativism</li> <li>2) Don't forget: <ul> <li>The President appoints Supreme Court Justices</li> <li>-Farmers never win</li> <li>-Civil liberties are limited in times of war</li> <li>-Civil liberties (speech) are not guaranteed</li> <li>-Books lead to social change (Paine, Stowe, Mahan, Sinclair, Riis, Carson, Nader)</li> </ul> </li> <li>3) Read carefully and examine all captions and text in cartoons/maps/charts</li> <li>4) Don't second guess yourself - they aren't trying to trick you!</li> </ul> <li>WHO WHAT WHEN WHERE WHY HOW CAUSE/EFFECT COMPARE/CONTRAST THEMATIC and DBQ TIPS: Brainstorm. Think of any term that may be related to the theme presented. Elaborate, elaborate, elaborate. Use as many actual excerpts/quotes/data from the documents to support your case.</li>	<ul> <li>-Fear of strong central government results in a weak Articles of Confederation</li> <li>-Constitution strengthens central government</li> <li>-US remains neutral/isolated</li> <li>-Civil War over sectionalism/slavery</li> <li>-Reconstruction failed to help secure equality for black Americans</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>-Great Depression occurs from Laissez-Faire attitude</li> <li>-New Deal = Increase in government participation to regulate economy</li> <li>-WWII leads to US leader in world affair and end of isolationism</li> <li>-Cold War era = Containment of communism by giving economic aid</li> <li>-Modern era = Distrust of government and renewed nativism</li> <li>2) Don't forget: <ul> <li>The President appoints Supreme Court Justices</li> <li>-Farmers never win</li> <li>-Civil liberties are limited in times of war</li> <li>-Civil liberties (speech) are not guaranteed</li> <li>-Books lead to social change (Paine, Stowe, Mahan, Sinclair, Riis, Carson, Nader)</li> </ul> </li> <li>3) Read carefully and examine all captions and text in cartoons/maps/charts</li> <li>4) Don't second guess yourself - they aren't trying to trick you!</li> </ul> <li>WHO WHAT WHEN WHERE WHY HOW CAUSE/EFFECT COMPARE/CONTRAST THEMATIC and DBQ TIPS: Brainstorm. Think of any term that may be related to the theme presented. Elaborate, elaborate. Use as many actual excerpts/quotes/data from the documents to support your case.</li>	<ul> <li>-Fear of strong central government results in a weak Articles of Confederation</li> <li>-Constitution strengthens central government</li> <li>-US remains neutral/isolated</li> <li>-Civil War over sectionalism/slavery</li> <li>-Reconstruction failed to help secure equality for black Americans</li> <li>-Spanish American War = First steps towards world affairs in Latin America</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>-New Deal = Increase in government participation to regulate economy</li> <li>-WWII leads to US leader in world affair and end of isolationism</li> <li>-Cold War era = Containment of communism by giving economic aid</li> <li>-Modern era = Distrust of government and renewed nativism</li> <li>2) Don't forget: <ul> <li>The President appoints Supreme Court Justices</li> <li>-Farmers never win</li> <li>-Civil liberties are limited in times of war</li> <li>-Civil liberties (speech) are not guaranteed</li> <li>-Books lead to social change (Paine, Stowe, Mahan, Sinclair, Riis, Carson, Nader)</li> </ul> </li> <li>3) Read carefully and examine all captions and text in cartoons/maps/charts</li> <li>4) Don't second guess yourself - they aren't trying to trick you!</li> </ul> <li>WHO WHAT WHEN WHERE WHY HOW CAUSE/EFFECT COMPARE/CONTRAST THEMATIC and DBQ TIPS: Brainstorm. Think of any term that may be related to the theme presented. Elaborate, elaborate. Use as many actual excerpts/quotes/data from the documents to support your case.</li>	<ul> <li>-Fear of strong central government results in a weak Articles of Confederation</li> <li>-Constitution strengthens central government</li> <li>-US remains neutral/isolated</li> <li>-Civil War over sectionalism/slavery</li> <li>-Reconstruction failed to help secure equality for black Americans</li> <li>-Spanish American War = First steps towards world affairs in Latin America</li> <li>-Corporations and wealthy dominate economy</li> <li>-Progressive Era creates reform for consumers/workers</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>-WWII leads to US leader in world affair and end of isolationism <ul> <li>-Cold War era = Containment of communism by giving economic aid</li> <li>-Modern era = Distrust of government and renewed nativism</li> </ul> </li> <li>2) Don't forget: <ul> <li>The President appoints Supreme Court Justices</li> <li>-Farmers never win</li> <li>-Civil liberties are limited in times of war</li> <li>-Civil liberties (speech) are not guaranteed</li> <li>-Books lead to social change (Paine, Stowe, Mahan, Sinclair, Riis, Carson, Nader)</li> </ul> </li> <li>3) Read carefully and examine all captions and text in cartoons/maps/charts</li> <li>4) Don't second guess yourself - they aren't trying to trick you!</li> </ul> <li>WHO WHAT WHEN WHERE WHY HOW CAUSE/EFFECT COMPARE/CONTRAST <ul> <li>THEMATIC and DBQ TIPS:</li> <li>Brainstorm. Think of any term that may be related to the theme presented.</li> <li>Elaborate, elaborate.</li> <li>Use as many actual excerpts/quotes/data from the documents to support your case.</li> </ul></li>	<ul> <li>-Fear of strong central government results in a weak Articles of Confederation</li> <li>-Constitution strengthens central government</li> <li>-US remains neutral/isolated</li> <li>-Civil War over sectionalism/slavery</li> <li>-Reconstruction failed to help secure equality for black Americans</li> <li>-Spanish American War = First steps towards world affairs in Latin America</li> <li>-Corporations and wealthy dominate economy <ul> <li>-Progressive Era creates reform for consumers/workers</li> <li>-WWI &amp; Roaring 20's = Isolationism (traditional policy)</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
<ul> <li>-Cold War era = Containment of communism by giving economic aid -Modern era = Distrust of government and renewed nativism</li> <li>2) Don't forget: <ul> <li>The President appoints Supreme Court Justices</li> <li>Farmers never win</li> <li>Civil liberties are limited in times of war</li> <li>Civil liberties (speech) are not guaranteed</li> <li>Books lead to social change (Paine, Stowe, Mahan, Sinclair, Riis, Carson, Nader)</li> </ul> </li> <li>3) Read carefully and examine all captions and text in cartoons/maps/charts</li> <li>4) Don't second guess yourself - they aren't trying to trick you!</li> <li>WHO WHAT WHEN WHERE WHY HOW CAUSE/EFFECT COMPARE/CONTRAST</li> <li>THEMATIC and DBQ TIPS:</li> <li>Brainstorm. Think of any term that may be related to the theme presented.</li> <li>Elaborate, elaborate.</li> <li>Use as many actual excerpts/quotes/data from the documents to support your case.</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>-Fear of strong central government results in a weak Articles of Confederation</li> <li>-Constitution strengthens central government</li> <li>-US remains neutral/isolated</li> <li>-Civil War over sectionalism/slavery</li> <li>-Reconstruction failed to help secure equality for black Americans</li> <li>-Spanish American War = First steps towards world affairs in Latin America</li> <li>-Corporations and wealthy dominate economy <ul> <li>-Progressive Era creates reform for consumers/workers</li> <li>-WWI &amp; Roaring 20's = Isolationism (traditional policy)</li> <li>-Great Depression occurs from Laissez-Faire attitude</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
<ul> <li>2) Don't forget: <ul> <li>The President appoints Supreme Court Justices</li> <li>Farmers never win</li> <li>Civil liberties are limited in times of war</li> <li>Civil liberties (speech) are not guaranteed</li> <li>Books lead to social change (Paine, Stowe, Mahan, Sinclair, Riis, Carson, Nader)</li> </ul> </li> <li>3) Read carefully and examine all captions and text in cartoons/maps/charts</li> <li>4) Don't second guess yourself - they aren't trying to trick you!</li> <li>WHO WHAT WHEN WHERE WHY HOW CAUSE/EFFECT COMPARE/CONTRAST</li> <li>THEMATIC and DBQ TIPS:</li> <li>Brainstorm. Think of any term that may be related to the theme presented.</li> <li>Elaborate, elaborate.</li> <li>Use as many actual excerpts/quotes/data from the documents to support your case.</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>-Fear of strong central government results in a weak Articles of Confederation</li> <li>-Constitution strengthens central government</li> <li>-US remains neutral/isolated</li> <li>-Civil War over sectionalism/slavery</li> <li>-Reconstruction failed to help secure equality for black Americans</li> <li>-Spanish American War = First steps towards world affairs in Latin America</li> <li>-Corporations and wealthy dominate economy <ul> <li>-Progressive Era creates reform for consumers/workers</li> <li>-WWI &amp; Roaring 20's = Isolationism (traditional policy)</li> <li>-Great Depression occurs from Laissez-Faire attitude</li> <li>-New Deal = Increase in government participation to regulate economy</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
<ul> <li>The President appoints Supreme Court Justices <ul> <li>Farmers never win</li> <li>Civil liberties are limited in times of war</li> <li>Civil liberties (speech) are not guaranteed</li> <li>Books lead to social change (Paine, Stowe, Mahan, Sinclair, Riis, Carson, Nader)</li> </ul> </li> <li>3) Read carefully and examine all captions and text in cartoons/maps/charts <ul> <li>4) Don't second guess yourself - they aren't trying to trick you!</li> </ul> </li> <li>WHO WHAT WHEN WHERE WHY HOW CAUSE/EFFECT COMPARE/CONTRAST <ul> <li>THEMATIC and DBQ TIPS:</li> <li>Brainstorm. Think of any term that may be related to the theme presented.</li> <li>Elaborate, elaborate.</li> <li>Use as many actual excerpts/quotes/data from the documents to support your case.</li> </ul></li></ul>	<ul> <li>-Fear of strong central government results in a weak Articles of Confederation</li> <li>-Constitution strengthens central government</li> <li>-US remains neutral/isolated</li> <li>-Civil War over sectionalism/slavery</li> <li>-Reconstruction failed to help secure equality for black Americans</li> <li>-Spanish American War = First steps towards world affairs in Latin America</li> <li>-Corporations and wealthy dominate economy <ul> <li>-Progressive Era creates reform for consumers/workers</li> <li>-WWI &amp; Roaring 20's = Isolationism (traditional policy)</li> <li>-Great Depression occurs from Laissez-Faire attitude</li> <li>-New Deal = Increase in government participation to regulate economy</li> <li>-WWII leads to US leader in world affair and end of isolationism</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
<ul> <li>-Farmers never win</li> <li>-Civil liberties are limited in times of war</li> <li>-Civil liberties (speech) are not guaranteed</li> <li>-Books lead to social change (Paine, Stowe, Mahan, Sinclair, Riis, Carson, Nader)</li> <li>3) Read carefully and examine all captions and text in cartoons/maps/charts</li> <li>4) Don't second guess yourself - they aren't trying to trick you!</li> <li>WHO WHAT WHEN WHERE WHY HOW CAUSE/EFFECT COMPARE/CONTRAST</li> <li>THEMATIC and DBQ TIPS:</li> <li>Brainstorm. Think of any term that may be related to the theme presented.</li> <li>Elaborate, elaborate.</li> <li>Use as many actual excerpts/quotes/data from the documents to support your case.</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>-Fear of strong central government results in a weak Articles of Confederation</li> <li>-Constitution strengthens central government</li> <li>-US remains neutral/isolated</li> <li>-Civil War over sectionalism/slavery</li> <li>-Reconstruction failed to help secure equality for black Americans</li> <li>-Spanish American War = First steps towards world affairs in Latin America</li> <li>-Corporations and wealthy dominate economy <ul> <li>-Progressive Era creates reform for consumers/workers</li> <li>-WWI &amp; Roaring 20's = Isolationism (traditional policy)</li> <li>-Great Depression occurs from Laissez-Faire attitude</li> <li>-New Deal = Increase in government participation to regulate economy</li> <li>-WWII leads to US leader in world affair and end of isolationism</li> <li>-Cold War era = Containment of communism by giving economic aid</li> <li>-Modern era = Distrust of government and renewed nativism</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
<ul> <li>-Civil liberties are limited in times of war</li> <li>-Civil liberties (speech) are not guaranteed</li> <li>-Books lead to social change (Paine, Stowe, Mahan, Sinclair, Riis, Carson, Nader)</li> <li>3) Read carefully and examine all captions and text in cartoons/maps/charts</li> <li>4) Don't second guess yourself - they aren't trying to trick you!</li> <li>WHO WHAT WHEN WHERE WHY HOW CAUSE/EFFECT COMPARE/CONTRAST</li> <li>THEMATIC and DBQ TIPS:</li> <li>Brainstorm. Think of any term that may be related to the theme presented.</li> <li>Elaborate, elaborate.</li> <li>Use as many actual excerpts/quotes/data from the documents to support your case.</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>-Fear of strong central government results in a weak Articles of Confederation</li> <li>-Constitution strengthens central government</li> <li>-US remains neutral/isolated</li> <li>-Civil War over sectionalism/slavery</li> <li>-Reconstruction failed to help secure equality for black Americans</li> <li>-Spanish American War = First steps towards world affairs in Latin America</li> <li>-Corporations and wealthy dominate economy <ul> <li>-Progressive Era creates reform for consumers/workers</li> <li>-WWI &amp; Roaring 20's = Isolationism (traditional policy)</li> <li>-Great Depression occurs from Laissez-Faire attitude</li> <li>-New Deal = Increase in government participation to regulate economy</li> <li>-WII leads to US leader in world affair and end of isolationism</li> <li>-Cold War era = Containment of communism by giving economic aid</li> <li>-Modern era = Distrust of government and renewed nativism</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
<ul> <li>-Civil liberties (speech) are not guaranteed</li> <li>-Books lead to social change (Paine, Stowe, Mahan, Sinclair, Riis, Carson, Nader)</li> <li>3) Read carefully and examine all captions and text in cartoons/maps/charts</li> <li>4) Don't second guess yourself - they aren't trying to trick you!</li> <li>WHO WHAT WHEN WHERE WHY HOW CAUSE/EFFECT COMPARE/CONTRAST</li> <li>THEMATIC and DBQ TIPS:</li> <li>Brainstorm. Think of any term that may be related to the theme presented.</li> <li>Elaborate, elaborate.</li> <li>Use as many actual excerpts/quotes/data from the documents to support your case.</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>-Fear of strong central government results in a weak Articles of Confederation</li> <li>-Constitution strengthens central government</li> <li>-US remains neutral/isolated</li> <li>-Civil War over sectionalism/slavery</li> <li>-Reconstruction failed to help secure equality for black Americans</li> <li>-Spanish American War = First steps towards world affairs in Latin America</li> <li>-Corporations and wealthy dominate economy <ul> <li>-Progressive Era creates reform for consumers/workers</li> <li>-WWI &amp; Roaring 20's = Isolationism (traditional policy)</li> <li>-Great Depression occurs from Laissez-Faire attitude</li> <li>-New Deal = Increase in government participation to regulate economy</li> <li>-WII leads to US leader in world affair and end of isolationism</li> <li>-Cold War era = Containment of communism by giving economic aid</li> <li>-Modern era = Distrust of government and renewed nativism</li> </ul> </li> <li>Don't forget: <ul> <li>-The President appoints Supreme Court Justices</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
<ul> <li>3) Read carefully and examine all captions and text in cartoons/maps/charts</li> <li>4) Don't second guess yourself - they aren't trying to trick you!</li> <li>WHO WHAT WHEN WHERE WHY HOW CAUSE/EFFECT COMPARE/CONTRAST THEMATIC and DBQ TIPS:</li> <li>Brainstorm. Think of any term that may be related to the theme presented.</li> <li>Elaborate, elaborate.</li> <li>Use as many actual excerpts/quotes/data from the documents to support your case.</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>-Fear of strong central government results in a weak Articles of Confederation</li> <li>-Constitution strengthens central government</li> <li>-US remains neutral/isolated</li> <li>-Civil War over sectionalism/slavery</li> <li>-Reconstruction failed to help secure equality for black Americans</li> <li>-Spanish American War = First steps towards world affairs in Latin America</li> <li>-Corporations and wealthy dominate economy <ul> <li>-Progressive Era creates reform for consumers/workers</li> <li>-WWI &amp; Roaring 20's = Isolationism (traditional policy)</li> <li>-Great Depression occurs from Laissez-Faire attitude</li> <li>-New Deal = Increase in government participation to regulate economy</li> <li>-WVII leads to US leader in world affair and end of isolationism</li> <li>-Cold War era = Containment of communism by giving economic aid</li> <li>-Modern era = Distrust of government and renewed nativism</li> </ul> </li> <li>Don't forget: <ul> <li>The President appoints Supreme Court Justices</li> <li>-Farmers never win</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
<ul> <li>4) Don't second guess yourself - they aren't trying to trick you!</li> <li>WHO WHAT WHEN WHERE WHY HOW CAUSE/EFFECT COMPARE/CONTRAST THEMATIC and DBQ TIPS:</li> <li>Brainstorm. Think of any term that may be related to the theme presented.</li> <li>Elaborate, elaborate.</li> <li>Use as many actual excerpts/quotes/data from the documents to support your case.</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>-Fear of strong central government results in a weak Articles of Confederation</li> <li>-Constitution strengthens central government</li> <li>-US remains neutral/isolated</li> <li>-Civil War over sectionalism/slavery</li> <li>-Reconstruction failed to help secure equality for black Americans</li> <li>-Spanish American War = First steps towards world affairs in Latin America</li> <li>-Corporations and wealthy dominate economy <ul> <li>-Progressive Era creates reform for consumers/workers</li> <li>-WWI &amp; Roaring 20's = Isolationism (traditional policy)</li> <li>-Great Depression occurs from Laissez-Faire attitude</li> <li>-New Deal = Increase in government participation to regulate economy</li> <li>-Cold War era = Containment of communism by giving economic aid</li> <li>-Modern era = Distrust of government and renewed nativism</li> </ul> </li> <li>Don't forget: <ul> <li>The President appoints Supreme Court Justices</li> <li>-Farmers never win</li> <li>-Civil liberties are limited in times of war</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
WHO WHAT WHEN WHERE WHY HOW CAUSE/EFFECT COMPARE/CONTRAST THEMATIC and DBQ TIPS: Brainstorm. Think of any term that may be related to the theme presented. Elaborate, elaborate, elaborate. Use as many actual excerpts/quotes/data from the documents to support your case.	<ul> <li>-Fear of strong central government results in a weak Articles of Confederation</li> <li>-Constitution strengthens central government</li> <li>-US remains neutral/isolated</li> <li>-Civil War over sectionalism/slavery</li> <li>-Reconstruction failed to help secure equality for black Americans</li> <li>-Spanish American War = First steps towards world affairs in Latin America</li> <li>-Corporations and wealthy dominate economy <ul> <li>-Progressive Era creates reform for consumers/workers</li> <li>-WWI &amp; Roaring 20's = Isolationism (traditional policy)</li> <li>-Great Depression occurs from Laissez-Faire attitude</li> <li>-New Deal = Increase in government participation to regulate economy</li> <li>-WWII leads to US leader in world affair and end of isolationism</li> <li>-Cold War era = Containment of communism by giving economic aid</li> <li>-Modern era = Distrust of government and renewed nativism</li> </ul> </li> <li>Don't forget: <ul> <li>The President appoints Supreme Court Justices</li> <li>-Farmers never win</li> <li>-Civil liberties are limited in times of war</li> <li>-Civil liberties (speech) are not guaranteed</li> <li>-Books lead to social change (Paine, Stowe, Mahan, Sinclair, Riis, Carson, Nader)</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
THEMATIC and DBQ TIPS: Brainstorm. Think of any term that may be related to the theme presented. Elaborate, elaborate, elaborate. Use as many actual excerpts/quotes/data from the documents to support your case.	<ul> <li>-Fear of strong central government results in a weak Articles of Confederation</li> <li>-Constitution strengthens central government</li> <li>-US remains neutral/isolated</li> <li>-Civil War over sectionalism/slavery</li> <li>-Reconstruction failed to help secure equality for black Americans</li> <li>-Spanish American War = First steps towards world affairs in Latin America</li> <li>-Corporations and wealthy dominate economy <ul> <li>-Progressive Era creates reform for consumers/workers</li> <li>-WWI &amp; Roaring 20's = Isolationism (traditional policy)</li> <li>-Great Depression occurs from Laissez-Faire attitude</li> <li>-New Deal = Increase in government participation to regulate economy</li> <li>-WWII leads to US leader in world affair and end of isolationism</li> <li>-Cold War era = Containment of communism by giving economic aid</li> <li>-Modern era = Distrust of government and renewed nativism</li> </ul> </li> <li> Don't forget: <ul> <li>The President appoints Supreme Court Justices</li> <li>-Farmers never win</li> <li>-Civil liberties are limited in times of war</li> <li>-Civil liberties (speech) are not guaranteed</li> <li>-Books lead to social change (Paine, Stowe, Mahan, Sinclair, Riis, Carson, Nader)</li> </ul> </li> <li> Read carefully and examine all captions and text in cartoons/maps/charts</li> </ul>
THEMATIC and DBQ TIPS: Brainstorm. Think of any term that may be related to the theme presented. Elaborate, elaborate, elaborate. Use as many actual excerpts/quotes/data from the documents to support your case.	<ul> <li>-Fear of strong central government results in a weak Articles of Confederation</li> <li>-Constitution strengthens central government</li> <li>-US remains neutral/isolated</li> <li>-Civil War over sectionalism/slavery</li> <li>-Reconstruction failed to help secure equality for black Americans</li> <li>-Spanish American War = First steps towards world affairs in Latin America</li> <li>-Corporations and wealthy dominate economy <ul> <li>-Progressive Era creates reform for consumers/workers</li> <li>-WWI &amp; Roaring 20's = Isolationism (traditional policy)</li> <li>-Great Depression occurs from Laissez-Faire attitude</li> <li>-New Deal = Increase in government participation to regulate economy</li> <li>-WWII leads to US leader in world affair and end of isolationism</li> <li>-Cold War era = Containment of communism by giving economic aid</li> <li>-Modern era = Distrust of government and renewed nativism</li> </ul> </li> <li> Don't forget: <ul> <li>The President appoints Supreme Court Justices</li> <li>-Farmers never win</li> <li>-Civil liberties are limited in times of war</li> <li>-Civil liberties (speech) are not guaranteed</li> <li>-Books lead to social change (Paine, Stowe, Mahan, Sinclair, Riis, Carson, Nader)</li> </ul> </li> <li> Read carefully and examine all captions and text in cartoons/maps/charts</li> </ul>
Elaborate, elaborate, elaborate. Use as many actual excerpts/quotes/data from the documents to support your case.	<ul> <li>-Fear of strong central government results in a weak Articles of Confederation</li> <li>-Constitution strengthens central government</li> <li>-US remains neutral/isolated</li> <li>-Civil War over sectionalism/slavery</li> <li>-Reconstruction failed to help secure equality for black Americans</li> <li>-Spanish American War = First steps towards world affairs in Latin America</li> <li>-Corporations and wealthy dominate economy <ul> <li>-Progressive Era creates reform for consumers/workers</li> </ul> </li> <li>-WWI &amp; Roaring 20's = Isolationism (traditional policy)</li> <li>-Great Depression occurs from Laissez-Faire attitude</li> <li>-New Deal = Increase in government participation to regulate economy</li> <li>-WWII leads to US leader in world affair and end of isolationism</li> <li>-Cold War era = Containment of communism by giving economic aid</li> <li>-Modern era = Distrust of government and renewed nativism</li> </ul> ) Don't forget: <ul> <li>-The President appoints Supreme Court Justices</li> <li>-Farmers never win</li> <li>-Civil liberties are limited in times of war</li> <li>-Civil liberties (speech) are not guaranteed</li> <li>-Books lead to social change (Paine, Stowe, Mahan, Sinclair, Riis, Carson, Nader)</li> </ul> ) Read carefully and examine all captions and text in cartoons/maps/charts ) Don't second guess yourself - they aren't trying to trick you!
Use as many actual excerpts/quotes/data from the documents to support your case.	<ul> <li>-Fear of strong central government results in a weak Articles of Confederation</li> <li>-Constitution strengthens central government</li> <li>-US remains neutral/isolated</li> <li>-Civil War over sectionalism/slavery</li> <li>-Reconstruction failed to help secure equality for black Americans</li> <li>-Spanish American War = First steps towards world affairs in Latin America</li> <li>-Corporations and wealthy dominate economy <ul> <li>-Progressive Era creates reform for consumers/workers</li> <li>-WWI &amp; Roaring 20's = Isolationism (traditional policy)</li> <li>-Great Depression occurs from Laissez-Faire attitude</li> <li>-New Deal = Increase in government participation to regulate economy</li> <li>-WIII leads to US leader in world affair and end of isolationism</li> <li>-Cold War era = Containment of communism by giving economic aid</li> <li>-Modern era = Distrust of government and renewed nativism</li> </ul> </li> <li>Don't forget: <ul> <li>-The President appoints Supreme Court Justices</li> <li>-Farmers never win</li> <li>-Civil liberties (speech) are not guaranteed</li> <li>-Books lead to social change (Paine, Stowe, Mahan, Sinclair, Riis, Carson, Nader)</li> </ul> </li> <li>Read carefully and examine all captions and text in cartoons/maps/charts</li> <li>Don't second guess yourself - they aren't trying to trick you!</li> </ul>
	<ul> <li>-Fear of strong central government results in a weak Articles of Confederation</li> <li>-Constitution strengthens central government</li> <li>-US remains neutral/isolated</li> <li>-Civil War over sectionalism/slavery</li> <li>-Reconstruction failed to help secure equality for black Americans</li> <li>-Spanish American War = First steps towards world affairs in Latin America</li> <li>-Corporations and wealthy dominate economy <ul> <li>-Progressive Era creates reform for consumers/workers</li> <li>-WWI &amp; Roaring 20's = Isolationism (traditional policy)</li> <li>-Great Depression occurs from Laissez-Faire attitude</li> <li>-New Deal = Increase in government participation to regulate economy</li> <li>-WVII leads to US leader in world affair and end of isolationism</li> <li>-Cold War era = Containment of communism by giving economic aid</li> <li>-Modern era = Distrust of government and renewed nativism</li> </ul> </li> <li>Don't forget: <ul> <li>-The President appoints Supreme Court Justices</li> <li>-Farmers never win</li> <li>-Civil liberties are limited in times of war</li> <li>-Civil liberties (speech) are not guaranteed</li> <li>-Books lead to social change (Paine, Stowe, Mahan, Sinclair, Riis, Carson, Nader)</li> </ul> </li> <li>Read carefully and examine all captions and text in cartoons/maps/charts</li> <li>Don't second guess yourself - they aren't trying to trick you!</li> </ul>
Use as many docs as possible and don't forget OUTSIDE INFORMATION .	<ul> <li>-Fear of strong central government results in a weak Articles of Confederation</li> <li>-Constitution strengthens central government</li> <li>-US remains neutral/isolated</li> <li>-Civil War over sectionalism/slavery</li> <li>-Reconstruction failed to help secure equality for black Americans</li> <li>-Spanish American War = First steps towards world affairs in Latin America</li> <li>-Corporations and wealthy dominate economy</li> <li>-Progressive Era creates reform for consumers/workers</li> <li>-WWI &amp; Roaring 20's = Isolationism (traditional policy)</li> <li>-Great Depression occurs from Laissez-Faire attitude</li> <li>-New Deal = Increase in government participation to regulate economy</li> <li>-WWI leads to US leader in world affair and end of isolationism</li> <li>-Cold War era = Containment of communism by giving economic aid</li> <li>-Modern era = Distrust of government and renewed nativism</li> <li>) Don't forget:</li> <li>-The President appoints Supreme Court Justices</li> <li>-Farmers never win</li> <li>-Civil liberties (speech) are not guaranteed</li> <li>-Books lead to social change (Paine, Stowe, Mahan, Sinclair, Riis, Carson, Nader)</li> <li>) Read carefully and examine all captions and text in cartcons/maps/charts</li> <li>) Don't second guess yourself - they aren't trying to trick you!</li> </ul>